Routt National Forest to Gather Public Input at Joint Greater Sage-Grouse Open House Meetings with BLM

(STEAMBOAT SPRINGS, Colo.) January 30, 2012 – In cooperation with the Bureau of Land Management's Northwest Colorado District (BLM), the Routt National Forest will join the BLM in an open house meeting in Craig on February 7, 2012.

The purpose of this meeting is to inform the public about greater sage-grouse planning efforts and gather scoping comments related to sage-grouse conservation measures that could be included in a potential revision of the Routt National Forest Land and Resource Management Plan.

Routt National Forest officials will be on hand to answer questions related to greater sage-grouse on the Routt National Forest. This open house meeting hosted by the BLM is scheduled to run from 4 p.m. to 7 p.m. at the BLM Field Office in Craig, located at 455 Emerson Street.

For more information about these meetings contact Melissa Martin at the Forest Supervisor's Office in Laramie at (307)745-2371.
